Jordan Jelinek of Richland FFA is Announced As Newly Elected Washington FFA State Reporter

Pullman, WA; With a strong past in the National FFA Organization, Jordan Jelinek prepares to take on a new chapter as the Washington FFA State Reporter.

Jelinek is originally from the Richland FFA Chapter and was elected to state office alongside her five teammates during the fourth session of the 94th Washington FFA State Convention and Expo.

As she reflected on her time in the organization Jelinek said her favorite memory was competing in the Creed Speaking Leadership Development Event, and then preparing another creed speaker the following year. It is this transition from “doing” to “leading” that Jelinek will be replicating once again.

As she kicks off her year, Jelinek is already making a mark on Washington FFA members. She encouraged them by saying, “I would encourage all the members to enjoy every second you have as a FFA member. We only have a couple million seconds so we have to enjoy it and make the best that we can.”

As she continues on in her year, she will be seen as a representative of the association. When asked about FFA she said the organization provides a sense of belonging, and gives people opportunities within career and leadership areas. It is this sense of pride in the organization that will allow her to be an advocate for the organization.

We know that as she continues to lead in Washington FFA Jelinek will push members to make the most of every second they have in the organization, and to take advantage of the opportunities presented to them.

The Washington FFA Association wishes Jelinek luck as she embarks on her year of service and thanks her for her dedication to our membership. Congratulations, Jordan Jelinek!
